but United States Troops Were Quickly Moved.

III. PAHO, Tex. Aug E. Capt.

William Kelly fr., commanding the cavalry troops rushed from Fort Blice to Pinjay, Texas, reported to tien. Hell to-day there was no truth to the report that 150 Mexican bandite invaded the United States near there.

The report of the bandits' presence had been received by Gen. Hell from militia officers at Fort Hancock.

On receipt of the earlier report announcing the crossing of the Rio Grands by the bandits Troops B and

If of the Elighth Cavalry, a motorcycle corps and ten truck loads of the Twenty-third Infantry were rushed from Fort filles to Fort Hancock.

First reports to Gen, field from the cavalry column said three hours search of the hills disclosed no trace of bandits.

Colonia Dublan, according to reports received here to-night. This is the result of two cloudbursts which have occurred in the region of Mexico during the past thirty-six hours. It is said that some of these trucks have been able to make only three miles a day because of the condition of the roads.

Bates, Who Drank With Doctor While Sick Children Remained

Outside, Loses 20 Days' Pay.

Patrolman Zachary Bates of the Atlantic Avenue Station, who was accused of having left an ambulance full of infantile paralysis patients in front of a saloon in Bay Ridge, July 17, while he was in the saloon drinking beer with Dr. Leonard A. Crosby of the Brooklyn Board of Health, was fined twenty days' pay to-day by Deputy Police Commissioner Leon G.

Bates pleaded guilty to all the charges made against him. This frank confession of his shortcomings, together with the fact that he had been already under suspension for two weaks, moved Deputy Commissioner Godley to firt the patroman off with

Attorney Rouben Haskell, representing Bates, made a brief plea for clemency, pointing out that it was

Bates's first detail, that the work involved danger, and that he had done only what the doctor in charge of the ambulance had done.
"All I want to know," replied the Deputy Commissioner, "is this: Did he leave his post? Did he take a drink? Could he not have prevented people from congregating about that ambulance?"
Attorney Haskell admitted that

Attorney Haskeil admitted that Bates had been at fault in all three

Dr. Crosby, who was with Bates in the saloon, was dismissed by the Board of Health the day after The Evening World exposed the incident.

LEARNING TO RUN AUTO WOMAN HITS 2 FIRST TRIP

Runs Down Girl Wheeling Brother in Baby Carriage, Then Gives Up Motoring.

After a lucky escape from a fatal acident Mrs. Florence Koester of No. 648 Teath Street, Brooklyn, has given up automobiling. She took a leason for an hour to-day from Edward Larkins, an instructor of the Maxwell Company in ear No. 2283. Mrs. Komter ran the car along Classon Avenue, turned into Eterling Place and saw ahead of her Elizabeth Powera, thirteen years old, wheeling her baby brother John in a carriage.

Panie-stricken, Mrs. Koester ran them both down before Larkins could seize the wheel. He stopped and took the children to the Jewish Hospital, where Dr. Hellerman found that they had suffered only scratches and a few bruises.

They were cited in the orders of the day and avanced the "Coulse de the could be the country to-day."
